CHIROPRACTIC INFORMED CONSENT FOR DIAGNOSIS AND TREATMENT

I hereby give my consent to the performance of diagnostic tests and procedures and chiropractic treatment or management of my condition(s).

Chiropractic treatment or management of conditions almost always includes the chiropractic adjustment, physiotherapies, and soft tissue therapies. Like most health care procedures, the therapies carry with them some risks. Unlike many such procedures, the serious risks associated with the therapies are extremely rare. Following are the known risks:

Temporary soreness or increased symptoms or pain. It is not uncommon for patients to experience temporary soreness or increased symptoms or pain after the first few treatments.

Dizziness, nausea, flushing. These symptoms are relatively rare. It is important to notify the chiropractor if you experience these symptoms during or after your care.

Fractures. When patients have underlying conditions that weaken bones, like osteoporosis, they may be susceptible to fracture. It is important to notify your chiropractor if you have been diagnosed with a bone weakening disease or condition. If your chiropractor detects any such condition while you are under care, you will be informed and your treatment plan will be modified to minimize risk of fracture.

Disc herniation or prolapse. Spinal disc conditions like bulges or herniations may worsen even with chiropractic care. It is important to notify your chiropractor if symptoms change or worsen.

Stroke. Previous research has suggested an association between cervical spine manipulation and stroke on extremely rare occasions. According to the most recent research, the risk of stroke with chiropractic care is the same as that associated with other types of treatment.

Other risks associated with chiropractic treatment include rare burns from physiotherapy devices that produce heat.

Needle acupuncture is performed in this clinic. Acupuncture is a means of diagnosis which involves utilization of needles. The needles may be stimulated by hand or with an electric stimulation machine. In addition to the risks stated above, needling extremely close to vital areas can result in complication. Our acupuncture certified chiropractors are trained in proper needling techniques to minimize this risk.

I understand that the practice of chiropractic and chiropractic acupuncture, like the practice of all healing arts, is not an exact science, and I acknowledge that no guarantee can be given as to the results or outcome of my care.

I have read or had read to me this informed consent document. I have discussed or been given the opportunity to discuss any questions or concerns with my chiropractor and have had these answered to my satisfaction prior to my signing this informed consent document. I have made my decision voluntarily and freely.
